

Hugh Mercer Day

The Conococheague Institute, Museum & Library

Saturday, June 3, 2017

1pm-5pm

Who is Mercersburg named after?

Well...Hugh Mercer of course and he was the patriot General who was killed at the Battle of Princeton in 1777.

But why did Mercer settle in Welsh Run in 1747, 270 years ago?

A native of Scotland, Hugh Mercer, joined the Jacobite Rebellion, an attempt to overthrow the Hanoverian monarchy in Britain in 1745. Learn about Mercer's rebel past, the Jacobite Rebellion and his journey to America.

12995 Bain Rd, Mercersburg, PA

717-328-3467

www.cimlg.org